

BE A SAFE ADULT

BE A SUPPORTIVE ADULT FOR THE YOUTH IN YOUR LIFE.

Participants will be equipped with the tools to protect and support the youth within their care.

CAPSA is a Northern Utah and Southeast Idaho nonprofit organization supporting survivors of domestic and sexual violence. CAPSA provides advocacy, education, therapy, and housing resources to empower individuals toward hope and healing. CAPSA prioritizes prevention education within our community, knowing that each person can make a positive impact in promoting safety for youth.

“SAFE ADULT” FRAMEWORK

Virtual SAFE Adult Presentation for Leaders and Members of all Faiths

Date: March 18

What You Can Expect

The Safe Adult training is a 45-minute training that equips parents and leaders with the tools to have important shame-free conversations. In the training, the framework is applied to online harm and violence concerns but could be used to navigate all challenging conversations. Through the training, participants will learn how to foster safe spaces where youth feel empowered and protected.
